

PRESS RELEASE: OCTOBER 2007

Tea & Cookies go hand in hand!

Today was Fun, the innovative tea company who brought you the award winning Teastack™, is proud to present a new gift idea for any special occasion. Tea & Cookies will be on sale in the run up to the festive season as well as in speciality stores and selected independent retailers across the UK in the New Year – making it the perfect choice for Valentine’s Day, Mother’s Day and general feel good pampering!

Simply open the lid and you’ll find 30g of Love Love Tea – the latest hand blended tisane in the Tea & Philosophy range – which lovingly combines whole organic rose buds and petals with coriander and liquorice root. A second compartment will hold 110g of handmade, heart shaped, organic shortbread cookies, which not surprisingly are made from nothing else but lots of lovely organic ingredients such as wheat flour, butter, sugar and sea salt.

In addition to these goodies, tucked away in each tin, you will find a different love note – the ultimate gift for someone you love or simply someone who loves tea and cookies!

The tin’s design is based on the successful Teastack™ and will have two compartments, one for the tea and one for the cookies. Once empty, it can be used for all your secret trinkets, or even better, the lovely people at Today was Fun will let you have the recipe for these delicious shortbread, which they have called ‘their not-so-secret-recipe’ so you can make your own. And if you can’t bake, you can ask someone you love to make them for you!

Sharyn Wortman, Today was Fun’s founder, explains: “We’re not alone in this world, imagine the birds without the bees or toast without jam, it just does not make sense.”

“Tea & Cookies however does make sense and we are thrilled that our tea has now found its best buddy,” she concludes.

In store for a limited period only at £14.95 a tin. It joins Sleepy Tea, Happiness, Inspiration, Friendship, Expectancy Tea and Green Green Tea as part of the Tea & Philosophy range from Today was Fun.
