

Green Green Tea™

TASTING NOTES

- NAME: Chun Mee, also known as Chun Mei, Zhen Mei, 珍眉茶, zhēnméi chá or precious eyebrow tea. The word Chun Mee translates as precious eyebrow and describes the shape of the leaves.
- ORIGIN: Jiangxi province of China
- ASPECT: The leaves are carefully hand rolled to the shape of eyebrows and then pan-fired. This tea produces a pale yellowish liquid.
- FLAVOUR: Full rounded flavour, sweet tasting infusion, known for its plum-like aftertaste and smooth mellow first impression. Can sometimes be slightly smoky.
- NOSE: This tea brews up a silky texture with an almost buttery note with good fresh, spring like aroma.
- TIMING: A refreshing tea to serve all day.

—ends—

For more information and visuals, please contact:
Isabelle Goldstein on 0208 3460069 or email isabelle@goldsteinpr.co.uk